Count Coluchowsky Says the Moslems Will Lose Austria's Support
Unless They Adopt Measures
Justifying Confidence—Greece
and Crete.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.
NEW YORK, June 10.—A special inquiry from Vienna says that in address to the Austrian delegation, Count Coluchowsky, Minister of Foreign Affairs, explained the foreign policy to the government in the course of his remarks, declaring that the situation in Crete was of such a character that it was impossible to say what would happen next.

The condition of things prevailing in the island, he said, was due to the maladministration of public affairs by the Turkish authorities. Turkey, he added, ought to take measures in her European and Asiatic provinces which would justify confidence in the administration of public affairs. Otherwise, he said, the Turkish people, including Austria, would be unable to prevent the empire's fall.

In an inspired article which appears in the Wiener Tagblatt, according to news emanating from Constantinople,
the Porte is said to have decided that there will be further complications
in connection with the rising in Crete.
The editor of the Neue Freie Presse
said that to him the Cretan question has left its acute form and fallen into the range of diplomacy. That question was a serious one, for if England had demanded reforms, Russia would have to go with her against Turkey. Turkey was not to give in to the demands of the Fremdenpolitik, the foreign editor insisted, as did others, that it was unfair to say that England had stirred up the Cretan insurrection. It could not, according to him, be even retained as reasonable, for England
had absolutely nothing to gain thereby.
The Armenian question has been easily settled. The Cretan question is a trifle in comparison. Austria would uphold her colleagues. He said they were all as one. He looked upon the question as one purely of local growth.
Matters are in a fearful condition in Crete, and large quantities of guns are being sent from Greece. The Neue Freie Presse has received the following from its special correspondent at Athens:

"I met some newly-arrived refugees
at the Piræus this morning. They say that on Friday and Saturday, fighting took place at Amigdalio when 150 Turks were killed or wounded in Cana. In consequence, excitement is again becoming great. A Turkish warship bombed several coast villages, and more Christian villages have been burned."

FIVE THOUSAND REFUGEES
LONDON, June 11.—The Times has a dispatch from Cana, Island of Crete,
which says that yesterday the Turkish troops invaded Acrotiri and Kydonia and desecrated the churches. In consequence of the destruction of villages in the western district, 5000 refugees have fled to the mountains where they are suffering extreme privations.
The burning of the villages about Retino continues, and also the villages around Cana.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—(Special Dispatch.) So far it is all McKinley.
Little Joe Manley glowers over his brown mustache and growls out that Tom Reed will not take the Vice-Presidential nomination. Tall Senator Gear of Iowa tells me the same in regard to Allison. Cullom and Quay are not even mentioned, and in the absence of Tom Platt and the New York contingent, the Morton subjects discussed are the platform and the Vice-Presidency.
There are two Vice-Presidential candidates in the ground, Hobart of New Jersey and De Young of California.

I met Mr. De Young this morning.
He is a stocky, well-rounded man of 48, whose every atom seems charged with bulldog pugnacity. He is a fighter from Fighterville, and has made a reputation in California as being one of the coolest and clearest-headed politicians of the Pacific Coast. He is the founder and owner of the San Francisco Chronicle, one of the most influential and best paying newspaper properties of the West.

De Young was just 17 when he and his brother, Charley, borrowed $30 to start it. In a few months they were making $1000 a month and they soon had such an influential paper that when California, in 1877, attempted to vote on a new constitution, some of the capitalists who would be acted by it, offered Mike De Young $100,000 to oppose the movement. De Young refused, and it was his paper, it is said, that carried the constitution through.

I met Mr. De Young at the Southern Hotel in the rooms of Mark Hanna, and asked "What is there in this talk about you as Vice-President?"

He replied: "It comes from the idea that something should be given to the silver States and to the West. As for me, I am not a candidate in any seeking sense, and I have done nothing to make myself so. I first took part in the movement in my favor at Denver.
The papers there had a lot in them about my being the Vice-Presidential candidate. I am here to nominate McKinley, and to get what I can for silver. My delegation will not leave the party.
However, if we do not get what we want, we are Republicans, and we will support the ticket. The talk about me is indicative of the desire to ease up the platform, and to show that the party is willing to consider the silver element. As for myself, as I said, I am not a candidate."

"But suppose the party wants you?"
"In that case," replied Mr. De Young,
"I shall accept. It is a great honor, and my business interests are in such a condition that I could fill the position."

"You were a candidate for the nomination at Minneapolis in 1892, were you not?"

"No, I was not a candidate then," replied De Young, "but I could have had the place. It was offered to me, and I refused it. I went to that convention to nominate Blaine, and when we failed and Harrison was nominated, I was mad all over. I left there in disgust as soon as the result of the ballot was known, and took my wife with me for a long drive. We rode from Minneapolis to St. Paul, and on our return, instead of going to dinner at the West House,
I went to the east of the New York Life Building. In this way I kept away from the crowd, and when I went to the convention hall in the afternoon I had seen none of the leading politicians."

"I had just taken my seat in the California delegation when Senator Wolcott of Colorado came to me and asked me to give some points about my life. 'What for?' said I. 'For my speech,' said he. 'We have decided to nominate you as Vice-President, and I am to present you to the convention.'
'What's that?' I asked in surprise. 'It's just what I said,' replied Wolcott. 'We have reached the conclusion that you are the best man for the second place

on the ticket, and we are going to nominate you.' It seems to me," said I,
"you have left out one element in your calculations, and that is my consent. I don't want the nomination, and I won't take it, and you can tell them so."

"You see," concluded Mr. De Young,
"I was so angry at the defeat of Mr.
Blaine that I felt then that I could have nothing to do with the ticket, and I answered off-hand I would not take it. Had I had twelve hours or twenty-four hours to consider the matter, I might have taken it. Coming as it did,
I had the backbone to refuse it, and I thank God I did, for I should have been sorely beaten. Remember that Wolcott told me in case I refused, Whitelaw Reid would be nominated, and that I replied, 'You may nominate Reid or any one else you please, but not me.
The man you nominate is sure to be beaten, and I do not intend to be that man.'"

The McKinley men here in St. Louis, however, seem to think that the Vice-Presidential should come from the East, and they would like Tom Reed if he will accept. They say it is true, perhaps, that Reed has declined, but that he would take the place if he were the choice of the convention.

Col. Myron T. Herrick, who is here with Mark Hanna running McKinley's campaign, tells me he thinks the ticket will be McKinley and Reed. This seems to be the universal desire of the Mc-Kinley men, and some of Reed's friends say he will accept the position, as he is tired of the Speakership and wants the leisure, which he could have if he were Vice-President, from the literary work which would be very profitable to him.

As to Hobart's candidacy, that is also acceptable to the McKinley men. Col.
Dick Kereens returned from Canton yesterday and he has hence the latest touch with McKinley. Kereens, you know, is the national committeeman from St. Louis. He is a railroad millionaire, and is partner with Senator Davis and Stephen Elliott in their vast West Virginia properties. He is for McKinley, and prophesies that he will be an even greater man in the hearts of the people than Blaine. I chatted with Mr. Kereens about the Vice-Presidency.
Said he: "If Reed doesn't want it, then the best man will be Hobart of New Jersey."

"Why?" said I, "who is he? The rank and file of the party don't know him?"

"He is a rich lawyer," replied Kereens. "He is a rich lawyer there and is worth, I venture, about $2,000,000. He is a brainy man, and he would strengthen the ticket in the East."

"How did you find McKinley?" I asked.

"He is in splendid condition, physically and mentally," replied Mr. Kereens. "He looks magnificent, and he told me that he had never felt better in his life. I foresee a great future for McKinley. He has all of Blaine's ability, with none of Blaine's weaknesses. He is a stayer. Blaine made two hundred and ninety-seven speeches in twenty-eight days during one of his campaigns.
McKinley can beat that, and make a big speech every time. He is a clean man, an honest man and a great man."

Mark Hanna is the leading figure here. He seems to be running the whole machine, and politicians fly around him like flies after sugar. I spent some time in his room this afternoon. He is a portly, rufous-faced man, well along in the fifties. He has bright eyes, a pleasant smile and a quick cordial way of doing things which keeps every one in a good humor. He knows how to handle men, and turns off business rapidly. He dresses well, and looks more in an old-fashioned English squire than a politician. I talked with some of his friends here about him.
They tell me he is worth at least $2, 000,000; that he has made most of it in coal and iron. They say he is in this business for the love of it, and that he does not expect to get an office nor a cent out of it.

When I chatted with him, I referred to his hard political work, and asked him how long he had been at it. He replied: "I have been working at this for more than a year. It is full of anxiety, but I like it."

"But," said I, "what are you doing for Mr. Hanna? What do you expect to get out of it?"

"Not a blanked thing," was the emphatic reply.

"But don't you expect to be Secretary of the Treasury, Minister to England, or something of that kind?"

"Not a bit of it," replied the iron king. "All I want to see is a Republican President, and the inauguration of a policy which will bring happiness to the poor people of this country. I believe they will get it through McKinley and protection, and therefore I am for McKinley."

"What is the outlook?"

"McKinley will be nominated," was the reply.

"You consider that a foregone conclusion?"

"I don't like to put it that way," said
Mr. Hanna. "It would be rubbing it in."

"How about the Vice-President?"

"Well, we will leave that to the convention. The party will support anyone who is nominated."

"How about silver?"

"I can't talk about that," said Mr.
Hanna, rather nervously. At this point Senator Redfield Proctor came in,
and the interview closed.

I have had a number of talks with leading statesmen here about the platform. The silver men are very much in evidence, but the more conservative among them seem willing to accept any platform which will retain the existing conditions as regards the two metals. It is generally believed that Teller and the Colorado delegation may go out of the convention. They may possibly carry Nevada and Idaho with them.

Finally Accepted.Mr. Kern Falls to Put in Appearance in the House—Politics Discussed with Some Heat—The Day in the Senate.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, June 10.—An enormous amount of business was transacted by the House today in order to clear the decks for the final adjournment tomorrow. The absence of Mr.
Kern permitted the members to pass bills in the closing hours in which they were interested. There was a great clamor for recognition. Fifty-three bills and joint resolutions were passed,
the most important of which probably was the bill appropriating $200,000 for the Transmississippi exposition at Omaha.

Mr. Allen of Mississippi, the wit of the House, enlivened the day with an humorous speech.

Chairman Cannon of the Appropriations Committee made a gallant fight to induce the House to stand out against the Senate public buildings item in the Sundry Civil Bill, but the members outvoted him by 100 to 88.

After the conference report on the District of Columbia Bill, containing his compromise on section characterized by labor, Mr. Cannon precipitated a heated discussion of the political situation in which Mr. Dockery of Missouri and Mr. Dingley of Maine participated. The work of the session was elaborately reviewed, criticized and defended.

The conference report on the District of Columbia Bill was adopted. The Senate resolution for final adjournment tomorrow at 4 o'clock was passed.
The House held a brief session at 9:30 o'clock to enable the Speaker to sign the enrolled bills.

FIFTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.
REGULAR SESSION.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Senate has disposed of the last of the appropriation bills and has fixed 4 o'clock tomorrow as the time for final adjournment. After being in session throughout the day, a night session was declared upon in order to adjust the many minor differences between the two houses.

A number of bills were passed during the day, including the important bill giving trial by jury and other safeguards in prosecution for contempt of court. The measure was passed by a majority of 100 to 88.

The bill was introduced by Senator Sherman of New York, and was supported by Mr. Sherman, Mr. Dingley of Maine, and Mr. Aldrich of Rhode Island. The bill was passed by a majority of 100 to 88.

An amendment was made by Mr. Cannon of Utah, giving the accused right of trial by jury on application to the Supreme Court. Senators Hill, Butler
and Peffer supported the bill and Senator Mitchell opposed it as revolutionary.
The bill establishing a code of signals
at sea was passed.

Senator Sherman explained that Great Britain has asserted at last to the entire maritime code.

Senator Mitchell of Oregon made a statement as to the necessity of action
on the resolution looking to a reorganization of the Northern Pacific Railroad. He said that it would pass out of the control of the Federal government and be subject to the State laws
of Wisconsin.

The following bills were passed: Senate bill to increase the pay of letter-carriers; authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to lease certain Alaskan islands for the propagation of gold and silver foxes. The last bill, which increased the pay of letter-carriers, was passed by a majority of 100 to 88.

The bill to increase the pay of letter-carriers in cities of more than 100, 000 population, was passed by a majority of 100 to 88.

RIPAN'S TABLETS

Miss Laura Lowery of Holton, La., writes: "I had indigestion and dyspepsia, the doctors said, but I do not know what was the matter. I only know that I suffered almost death, especially when at a delicate period my bowels were bad and I had such pains in my back of a morning I could hardly get out of bed. When I had taken the Tablets for two weeks, as directed, I can say with pleasure that I was a new person. These are facts, as my friends can say the same." One Gives Relief.

Ripans Tablets are sold by druggists or by mail. If the price (20¢ a box) is sent to The Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce St., New York. Sample vial, 10 cents.

2527 Rivets

Hose together.
247 holds the ordinary rubber garden hose together.

The strength of hose depends on these rubber rivets (technically called friction). A short rivet is stronger than a long one. Bull-Dog rivets are short.

Theory and results prove Bull-Dog strongest hose for money made.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

If one wants to get points on how to run for office, he should apply to some of the managers of prospective candidates for the trusteeship in Santa Ana.

The Fire Commission has determined to abide by the decision, not to allow the department apparatus to make a part of the Fourth of July parade. It appeared to be a question of business or sentiment, and business has apparently triumphed.

The conclusion of the Hearne-Chronicle $100,000 libel suit at San Diego ends an eight-day trial, which, in some respects, was a notable case. The jury failed to agree. This is regarded as a practical victory for the San Francisco Chronicle.

A San Diego hotel has the following conspicuous sign: "For ladies only; reading and writing room; general conversation not in order." It is almost needless to say that members of the Woman's Parliament and of the Woman Suffrage campaign clubs, will shun this hotel as they would shun the well, the deep sea.

The ball has been started rolling for a large and "splendid" ratification meeting, to follow the nomination by the St. Louis convention of a Republican Presidential candidate. Committees were appointed at a public meeting last evening, to have charge of the affair. They should have the cooperation of every Republican in the city, great and small, in their work of making ready to "whop it up" in the most approved style, when the time for ratifying arrives.

From the Times Riverside correspondence it would seem that the Orange-growers' Exchange is facing a spirit of dissatisfaction which may prove a serious menace to its welfare during the next year. It is understood that the opposition to the exchange is not against the cooperative idea, but is based on the alleged failure to obtain as good prices for oranges as have been received by outsiders. It is hard work to convince a man that it is to his interest to join an organization which makes smaller returns than other growers outside of the organization receive.

California is competing in the eastern markets for new honors. Augustin Daly, the celebrated theatrical manager of New York, has engaged six attractive young women from this state to participate in the coming dramatic season at the Metropolitan. Times have changed mightily since the days of '49. Then there was a demand for Massachusetts school marm and other girls in carload lots to come West and become the husbands of worthy pioneers. And now the tide has turned. The charming femininity of the Pacific Coast is eagerly sought by the East. California has come to the fore with mighty strides in almost all walks of life.

A few days ago the Board of Supervisors requested the District Attorney to submit a written opinion as to the powers of the board in the contemplated refunding of the county's bonded indebtedness. This inquiry was instituted in answer to a proposition from a Chicago and New York banking house to take up the bonds at 4 1/2 per cent. annual interest, provided such bonds could be secured in large amounts. Los Angeles county is now paying a much higher rate of interest. The District Attorney finds that under the laws of the State these bonds can be refunded for lower rate of interest bonds. The opinion is published in its entirety in this morning's issue of The Times.

Unique Celebration in Honor of Ancient Mexico.

Los Angeles will have an interesting entertainment on July 4 and 5, by the Mexican residents, who intend to give a grand celebration in honor of the people of ancient Mexico. There will be races and athletic games in the Mexican style, and spirited contests for prizes, in which all the participants will be Mexicans. In addition to this picturesque display, there will be a drama enacted in the open air, representing the kidnapping of a Mexican girl by Indians. The assault will be made upon the defenseless house, which will be burned to the ground. The sole occupant, a young Mexican girl, has been captured and carried off. The savages will then be pursued by a band of mounted Mexicans, and, after a sharp battle, the abductors will be conquered and ignominiously lynched, while the girl is taken home in triumph. The play will close with the marriage of the rescued girl to the leader of the Mexicans.

All the actors will be in full Mexican costume, and the wedding celebration will be enlivened by national games and dances, to Mexican music. The celebration will take place in Agricultural Park, and no pains are being spared to make it recall the old days of Southern California, before the rule of the Americans transformed the land into a corner of the great, bustling United States.

Holleran's Quick Work. Officer Mike Holleran distinguished himself last night by arresting a colored boy on a charge of burglary in less than half an hour after he had heard his description read at roll-call. Sergeant Smith read the description at 7:45 o'clock, a description of William Smith, wanted for robbing Pemberton's lunch room Monday night. Half an hour later Smith was locked up at police headquarters, Officer Holleran having seen him on Alameda street and arrested him.

GIPSY ENCAMPMENT—BRILLIANT SCENE AT ST. JAMES PARK.

Large Attendance—Beautiful Booths and Lovely Women—Varied Attractions—Enchiladas, Tamales and Ices—Gorgeous Costumes.

The gipsy encampment at St. James Park, given by the Ladies' Auxiliary for the benefit of the St. James Industrial School, opened last evening in a blaze of glory. All swelled from the park was thronged during the whole evening, and all the booths were crowded with customers, while about the winding walks and velvet lawns, strolled hundreds, enjoying the delightful music, the brilliant scene, and the fragrance of flowers. Near the lily pond in the center of the park, was stationed the Los Angeles Military Band, rendering most enjoyable music at intervals, while all about were comfortable chairs for those who preferred to sit still, enjoy the music and watch the promenaders.

One of the prettiest features of the decorations is the myriads of electric lights with which the tents, the booths and the trees are bejeweled. They make the park almost as light as day. The Los Angeles Lighting Company furnished the electricity as its contribution to the affair.

Near the Scarff-street entrance is the ice cream booth, or snow palace, the larriest and the prettiest. Silver fringe hung in glittering lines from the ceiling, which was dotted with incandescent lights. About the pillars were massed potted palms and flowers, and upon the small tables were either bowls of flowers or pink-shaded candles.

The decorations formed a charming setting for the lovely women in evening gowns and powdered hair, who served the ices and coffee. The booth is managed by Miss Alden and Mrs. F. H. Shoemaker, assisted by

W. S. Hook, S. H. Martin, J. S. Vosburg, Dean Mason, J. Fares, Fullwood, Misses Waddilove, Lila Lewis, Scott, Kate Ellis, L. McFarland, G. Caswell, Maggie Winston, G. Graham, Dorothy Gros, L. Hamilton, Cora Goodrich, M. Da Luna, G. Johnson, M. Da Luna, G. Knight, M. Da Luna.

The American booth, where delicious chocolate is dispensed by pretty girls in white aprons, caps and kerchiefs, presents a charming scene. Huge flags are draped to form the sides and the front is a feathery mass of red, white and blue. Handsome flags float from the peak and the corners, while inside are palms and quantities of small flags prettily arranged. The managers of this booth are Misses A. C. Jones and A. H. Fiken, assisted by the Misses Wellborn, the Misses Fairchild and Miss Bertha Fiken. Near by in front of a gipsy tent, Mr. and Mrs. Shawhan and Mr. Schmeiser, in picturesque costumes, dispensed delightful mandolin and guitar music, and Mr. Schmeiser also played wonderful solos on his glass tumbler. In this quarter is the headquarters of the Executive Committee, Misses Sumner, P. Hunt, T. A. Elsen and Daniel McFarland.

The Japanese tea garden and "fish pond" are in a particularly pretty location, near the lily-pond, beneath the shade of spreading fan-palms. A huge Japanese umbrella forms the roof, the pillars of feathery bamboo are wreathed with gay morningglories and white and scarlet all Japanese flags float at the corners. Pretty lanterns shed a soft light over the cozy tables under the palms, and the girls, with their escorts, who sit there sipping the refreshing beverage. The ladies in charge looked very lovely in their rich Japanese costumes. A dainty cup and saucer is given to each patron, and long before the evening was over the stock of fifty cups and saucers had vanished. Mrs. O. P. Posey, Mrs. Albert Crutcher and Miss Greer preside over this pretty retreat.

The lemonade booth, where Mrs. Howard M. Sale, Mrs. Tyler and Miss Powers are kept busy serving delicious punch and lemonade, is most attractively decorated with branches of oranges and huge lanterns, while outside is a busy negro bouncer, clad in all the colors of the rainbow, giving in the evening was over the stock of fifty cups and saucers had vanished. Mrs. O. P. Posey, Mrs. Albert Crutcher and Miss Greer preside over this pretty retreat.

Near the Adams-street entrance are two Central American booths, called the tienda and fonda, where cigarettes and chichula are sold. The costumes of the ladies are particularly handsome and the booths are great attractions. The managers are Mrs. Sanford Robinson and Miss Katherine Casey, assisted by Misses Boreford Joy, Nellie Frank, enfield, Edith Kirkpatrick, Genevieve Robinson, Julia and Clara Mercereau, Grace and Chancie Ferris.

The soda booth, a pretty affair in pink and lavender bunting and arches of palms, is charmingly presided over by Misses P. K. Ruiz, Granville McGowan, Morris Albee and William E. Dunn, all in pink evening gowns.

The candy booth is gay with red and yellow bunting, relieved by the deep green of the date and fan-palms which form the roof. The ladies looked very pretty in their evening gowns, and did a rushing business. The managers are Mrs. Frank Rader and Mrs. S. G. Goucher, assisted by George Steckel, Alice Coe Fallon, Misses Hignbotham, Blanche Dewey, Winder, Mabel Rose, Mabel Miller, Leitha Lewis, Amanda Terrell, Harriet Smith.

The tamales booth is one of the handsomest in the grounds, and was crowded all the evening. The decorations are in the Mexican colors and are exceedingly attractive. The roof is of red, white and green stripes of bunting, and from the eaves hang graceful festoons of ropes of the same colors. Beautiful blankets are draped about the interior, while against the walls are arranged small bowls and arrows, chachiras, sombreros and baskets. Strings of pepper sprays and red pepper are caught about the rafters and the place is brilliant with the light from myriads of lanterns. The kitchen is under the direction of a Mexican cook and serves very delicious are the tamales and coffee brought from her domain and served by some of the prettiest girls in the city. In the gayest of Mexican costumes, the booth is presided over by Mrs. Walter S. Moore, assisted by Personal Investigation of the Water System to Be Made.

The County May Refund Bonds at a Lower Rate of Interest—Frasquillo Gets Five Years—Mehan Not Guilty—Review.

At the City Hall yesterday the Board of Health held its regular monthly meeting, at which a number of important matters were discussed and acted upon. The Fire Commission refused to reconsider its action by which the request of the Fourth of July Committee that the department participate in the parade, was denied. City Attorney Dunn has prepared an ordinance describing the boundaries of the city territory. In the different wards, which were affected by the recent annexation election.

At the Courthouse yesterday an important opinion was given by District Attorney Donnell, in answer to an inquiry from the Board of Supervisors. The opinion says that county bonds may be refunded. Frasnquillo, convicted of robbery, waived time of sentence yesterday and was ordered to receive a term for five years. Mehan, charged with rape, was acquitted by a jury. The County Jail received six new inmates. The Board of Supervisors has awarded the contract for voting booths and ballot boxes. Four new citizens were admitted. Wo Lung was found guilty at Pasadena upon a charge of indecent exposure, and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 or 500 days in jail; the heathen is now in the County Jail.

[AT THE CITY HALL.]

WARD BOUNDARIES.

CHANGES WHICH THE ANNEXATION ELECTION HAS MADE.

An Ordinance which the Council Will Adopt Next Monday—Commissioner of the City of Los Angeles, in answer to an inquiry from the Board of Supervisors.

City Attorney Dunn has prepared the draft of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance altering the boundaries of the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Wards of the city of Los Angeles and adding to and including within such wards certain additional territory, which will submit to the Council next Monday."

The change in the boundaries of the wards referred to is made necessary by the result of the recent annexation election, by which certain territory was added to the western and southern ends of the city.

The boundaries of the Third Ward, under the present conditions, are as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the center line of Seventh street in Skat-tos addition with the westerly charter boundary of the city of Los Angeles, thence west along said center line of Seventh street to the center line of Vermont street; thence north along said center line of Vermont street to the center line of Heights tract; thence east to the westerly charter boundary line of the city of Los Angeles; thence south along said westerly boundary line to the place of beginning.

The Fourth Ward boundaries are made out as follows in the ordinance: Beginning at the intersection of the westerly charter boundary line of the city of Los Angeles with the center line of Washington street lying west of said boundary line; thence west along said center line of Washington street to a point 150 feet west of the west line of First avenue extended; thence north to a point 150 feet north of the north line of Sixth street extended; thence east to the westerly charter boundary line of the city of Los Angeles; thence south along said boundary line to the place of beginning.

The Fifth Ward will be embraced in the following boundaries: Beginning at the intersection of the center line of Main street; thence east to the center of New Main street; thence south along New Main street to a point 150 feet south of the south line of Slouson avenue; thence west to a point 300 feet west of the west line of Figueroa street; thence north to a point 150 feet north of the north line of Slouson avenue; thence east to the westerly charter boundary line of the city of Los Angeles; thence south along said boundary line to the place of beginning.

The Sixth Ward is enlarged and made new as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the center line of New Main street, with the south charter boundary; thence east to the westerly charter boundary; thence south along Alameda street to a point thirty feet north of the north line of Slouson avenue; thence west parallel to the north line of Slouson avenue to the center line of New Main street; thence north along the center line of New Main street to the place of beginning.

FIRE COMMISSIONERS.

More Consideration of the Fourth of July Parade Question.

The Fire Commissioners yesterday, at their regular meeting, received the following communication from the Fourth of July Executive Committee, asking for a reconsideration of the action by which the use of the department was denied to the committee for its Fourth of July parade:

"At a meeting of the Fourth of July Executive Committee held last evening, I was instructed to request you to use your influence toward a reconsideration of the motion passed by the Board of Fire Commissioners denying the application of this committee to have the department participate in the parade. We believe that a large majority of our citizens favor the exhibition of the department."

"The fire department is a credit to the city and the people want to see it. Our committee is working hard to make the celebration a success. We want to have a grand parade and losing this feature places an obstacle in our way that the committee had not anticipated."

"We desire to thank you for the interest you have displayed and the encouragement you have given us, and will appreciate your efforts to have at least a portion of the department turn out. The above communication was read by the clerk and ordered 'filed,' no discussion of the matter taking place by the board."

A protest made to the commission against a pay market on Seventh and San Pedro street, was referred to the Chief for investigation and report.

An application from A. W. Brown for appointment as callman, was filed. Chief Moore was instructed to prepare a list of all the fire hydrants in the city, and the location of the same, and ascertain the probable cost of having the list printed for public distribution.

The commission decided to once again and for the last time notify property owners that unless their buildings are provided with fire escapes, as required by law, before July 1, prosecution for violation of the law will be commenced. A requisition was drawn for $500, to apply on the cost of six new fire-alarms.

The matter of providing quarters for Engine Company No. 8 on West Third street was discussed, and it was decided to secure temporary quarters for the company until a suitable and permanent building is erected for the purpose.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Startling Statements Made Regarding the City's Water Supply.

The disease breeding condition of much of the water which is furnished by the City Water Company and used for domestic purposes throughout the city, was discussed yesterday by the medicos of the Board of Health, at their regular meeting.

After a thorough discussion of typhoid fever in a family, which could be traced to no other cause than the water used in the house. He considered the situation a serious one, calling for prompt and vigorous action on the part of the board. His view of the case was coincident in his colleagues.

After a thorough discussion of the matter, in which many facts relating to the condition of the water, and the remedy, were presented, the board was brought out, it was decided to make in a few days a personal and thorough investigation of the reservoir and water system generally. Following this inspection a plan of action will be decided upon, to bring about a change in the water, as is now supplied to the water consumers of Los Angeles.

Dr. Kuhrt brought up the matter of the penny-in-the-slot drinking fountains, which he declared might be and doubtless were productive of contagion and disease. Health Officer Skiddom was instructed to use his judgment in abating the same.

The subject of spitting in the streets, in public buildings, and on the sidewalks was discussed by the board, the sentiment being unanimously in favor of a restrictive ordinance which would expectation, as now found throughout the city. No definite action was taken in the matter.

Register Denies the Allegation. H. C. Register, who has resigned his position as an inspector of the city of Los Angeles, denies that his recent flaccid scrape with Capt. Hutton was the cause, remote or otherwise, of his resignation. He makes the statement that for two months he has contemplated resigning, and engaging in other and more lucrative business.

Street Superintendent Howard corroborates the statement of his erstwhile superior, and signs a card, certifying to the all-around ability and general integrity of Register.

City Hall Elevator "Stalling Block." Shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the rope used to induce movement in the City Hall elevator, broke while the "lift" was on its upward path. The cause was the rope, which was taking the elevator to the roof in a hurry, where it remained, through the action of the safety mechanism with which it is provided. No one was injured by the affair, the elevator only containing the elevator boy and one lady passenger.

Street Assessment Prepared. The assessment for the improvement of Thirty-third street between Main street and Grand avenue, was completed yesterday, and the assessment, to a point 150 feet west of the west line of First avenue extended, was included in all assessments of $50 or under, remaining unpaid thirty days from today, running ten years and drawing ten per cent interest per annum.

City's Adverse Title. J. A. Forthman and others have filed an action against the city of Los Angeles to quiet title to lot 17, block 3, Sanchez tract.

L. B. Hart filed an action against W. S. Horn for divorce, on the grounds of failure to provide.

Mortgage Foreclosure. Henry Fred Weber has begun suit against Nettie Steinhauser and Charles E. Steinhauser to recover $150, costs and attorney's fees and for foreclosure of mortgage upon lot 8, of the Orange tract, section 9, township 1 south, range 10 west.

Morgan's Sycamore Grove tract, being a subdivision of the Hunter-High View tract, and to prevent the city from operating its railway over or across said lot 6.

Frasquillo Gets Five Years. Francisco Frasnquillo, convicted by a jury in Judge Smith's court Tuesday upon the charge of robbing McKinney at San Gabriel, appeared in Department One yesterday, waived time of sentence and was ordered confined in Folsom for five years. His wife and three little children watched the proceedings with stoical interest.

Graham's Insolvency. The petition of J. B. Graham, an insolvent, for the setting aside of certain property, was heard in Judge Shaw's court yesterday, along with the protest of creditors. The cause was argued, submitted and taken under advisement by the court.

Granted a Divorce. Elizabeth H. Blair has been granted a divorce from William H. Blair, on the grounds of failure to provide, the decree was entered in Department Six.

Snead Elected Assessor. In the matter of the insolvency of O. L. Livsey, Elhu Snead was elected assessor in Department Four yesterday, with a bond fixed in the sum of $100. This is an Antelope Valley case.

Mehan Discharged. John Mehan, charged with rape upon the person of Lydia S. Brown, aged 13, was on trial before Judge Smith and a jury yesterday. The cause of the prosecution was very weak and ended in the jury bringing a verdict of not guilty. The mother of the girl confessed to lewd relations between herself and the defendant on the night the assault upon the child was charged to have been committed. Some things are unsound in Denmark and this appears to have been one of them. Mrs. Brown was a good witness for the defense.

Mortgage Foreclosure. Margaret A. Huston has filed an action against R. D. Livingston and William Cook to recover $100 and costs and for foreclosure of mortgage upon lot 23 of the Weisendanger City tract, city of Los Angeles, and for a conveyance of some interest in the property, hence is made one of the defendants.

Judgment on Foreclosure. In the action of S. S. Carter against G. A. Smith and others in foreclosure proceedings, judgment was entered for plaintiff in Judge Shaw's court yesterday for $675, and for foreclosure of mortgage upon lot 9, block 6, Le Mar's subdivision of block 184, city of Pomona.

A Contested Check. Frank R. Rhoades versus the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Los Angeles was the title to a cause on trial before Judge Young yesterday, where the plaintiff sought to have his signature to a check for $325 declared a forgery. The bank had paid out $200 on this check and Rhoades endeavored to get judgment against the institution for the amount. Experts declared the signature to the check to be that of Rhoades and in conformity with this evidence the court found for the defendant bank.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS. Contract Awarded for Booths and Ballot Boxes. The petition for the vacation of Park avenue and all alleys in Umpheys's subdivision of part of the Monte Vista tract, was called up at yesterday morning's session of the board and on motion of Supervisor Hanley its further consideration was continued to June 23, 1896, at 11 o'clock a.m.

Upon motion of Supervisor Woodward, Frederick Rincon was permitted to file his application for a saloon license at Alhambra, without prejudice.

The following applications for saloon licenses were taken up for consideration at 10:30 o'clock a.m.: W. E. Christie, Palmdale; Aladino & De George, Santa Monica; Cahoon, J. V. Lawrence, Cerritos Station, Compton precinct.

The bond of Thowald Olsen, for a saloon license at East San Pedro, was approved.

The proposition of the W. C. Furey Company for furnishing booths and ballot boxes for election purposes was accepted on the following bid: Double booths, $12 each; single booths, $7 each; ballot boxes, heavy galvanized iron, with lock and cover, $4.75 each.

The board granted McArthur & Durfy permission to lay pipes along the streets and alleys of the town of Sherman, in the Calhoun Valley, pipes to be laid not less than two feet underground, and streets to be left in as good condition as before the pipes were laid, the parties receiving this permission to be responsible for any damage that may occur by reason of said pipes. Permission is granted during the pleasure of the board.

The request of the Central School Superintendent for an extra deputy for six weeks was partly granted. A deputy was granted for three weeks, at the rate of $75 per week.

John Burr, Sheriff, was granted a leave of absence for seven days, that ending on the 12th inst., and the election of John Craig as Folsom on June 12, 1896.

FOR YOUNG MEN.

MOVEMENT TO EXTEND THE WORK OF THE Y.M.C.A.

Meeting at O. T. Johnson's—The Secretary Outlines the Situation. Committee Appointed to Raise Ten Thousand Dollars.

A meeting was held on Tuesday evening at the residence of O. T. Johnson on Orange Heights, for the purpose of considering the conditions surrounding young men in modern city life, with special reference to the work of the Young Men's Christian Association, in endeavoring to give them a more practical business and industrial training. The following named were present: W. A. Bingham, E. P. Bosbyshell, J. H. Braly, Rev. Dr. W. J. Chichester, J. G. Chamberlain, Prof. Melville Dossier, Harry Brook, M. H. Merriman, S. P. Mulford, Z. D. Mathews, J. M. C. Marble, J. R. Newberry, A. E. Pomeroy, R. W. Polindexter, O. C. Patterson, J. H. Roads, Judge Lucian Shaw, H. B. Stora, E. H. Edwards, Supervisor E. S. Field, E. A. Forrester, W. W. Howard, Dr. John Haynes, Prof. F. S. Hartford, F. O. Johnson, Dr. J. Miles Boal, H. Y. G. George, W. Parsons, S. M. Parsons, F. M. Porter, President C. G. Baldwin of Pomona College, and Willard D. Ball, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Pres. C. G. Baldwin of Pomona College, who acted as chairman of the meeting, made a few opening remarks in which he narrated some instances of his experience in making active and useful citizens of unimproving youths. F. S. Hartford, principal of the Anna Ma-street school, formerly of the High School, delivered an interesting address on the difficulties that children of the poorer classes have to contend with.

The chairman then introduced W. D. Ball, the secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, who, by the aid of charts and figures drawn on large sheets of paper and mounted on an easel, gave a graphic and interesting report of the growth and progress of the association in Los Angeles and the need of a moderate amount of money to continue the good work that has so far been performed. Mr. Ball presented reports showing the progress, work and needs of the association since it was founded in 1882. It was shown that there is need of $5000 for improvements and $5000 for applying on indebtedness.

The $5000 to be applied on indebtedness is in addition to the mortgage on the building, the $5000 having been loaned to the association by some of the directors. It is estimated that the moderate additional sum of $5000 would suffice to fix up in the basement and attic large class rooms, where an extension of the manual training department could be carried on. The Y.M.C.A. furnishes the only opportunity in Los Angeles for young people to obtain manual training of any description. Owing to the limited space available, the work has been much cramped, and it has only been possible, so far, to make a small beginning. It is hoped that the directors that in course of time this manual training department will become one of the most useful and attractive features of the association work.

Mr. Ball drew attention to the large proportion of receipts derived from membership fees as compared with donations. There are few associations of equal size in the United States that can make such a record. In most of the large cities the association receives liberal donations from public-spirited citizens.

The secretary's address was followed by a general discussion, participated in by Dr. W. J. Chichester, George Parsons, R. W. Polindexter, Prof. Melville Dossier, S. F. Mulford, D. K. Edwards, E. S. Field, S. M. Parsons and others.

On motion, a committee of six was appointed, with power to increase their number to twelve, for the purpose of interviewing citizens and soliciting subscriptions toward the required amount of $10,000. The following named were appointed on the committee: Messrs. Hartford, Mulford, Parsons, Merriman, Polindexter and Howard.

Before the meeting broke up over $350 had been pledged as a starter by a dozen of the men present. A vote of thanks was given O. T. Johnson for his courtesy in giving the meeting to use his handsome new residence. Light refreshments were served, and after a brief discussion on general topics the meeting dispersed.

The committee appointed will make an energetic canvass of the city, and anticipates little trouble in collecting the moderate sum asked for, which is badly needed for the purposes indicated in the secretary's statement.

REMITTED THE FINE.
Doctor Punished for not Reporting a Plethoric Case.
Willie Buchanan, charged with battery by H. A. Wittson, was discharged by Justice Owens yesterday.

Ed Bell, arrested some days ago by Officer Baker for disturbing the peace, was found guilty by Justice Morrison and will be sentenced today.

PREPARING TO RATIFY.

Plans for a Republican Love Feast After the National Convention.

Representatives of the various Republican clubs of the city met in Justice Morrison's courtroom last evening to make arrangements for a ratification meeting, to follow the work of the Republican National Convention.

H. Glaze was made chairman of the meeting, and C. W. Fleming, secretary. Maj. Fairbanks introduced a motion that an executive committee of fifteen be appointed from the various clubs to assume complete charge of the ratification meeting. This motion prevailed, and it was decided to have nominations made by one representative from each of the clubs, and the Executive Committee was appointed as follows:

W. Kinney from the Young Men's Republican League; O. A. Kiefer, Sixth Ward Club; H. Glaze, Army and Navy League; W. S. Redding, McKinley Club; L. Gottschalk, German McKinley Club. A recess of ten minutes was then taken, and upon being called to order the chair named the following men as the choice of the Nominating Committee, to take charge of the ratification meeting:

Sixth Ward Club, C. L. Strange and G. L. Kiefer; McKinley Club, M. G. Williams, A. N. Franco, D. F. Riley, A. B. Conrad; Young Men's Republican League, D. P. Walde, I. N. Noble, J. P. Kennedy, J. W. Barber; Army and Navy League, F. J. Cressy, William Young, C. M. Fairbanks; East Side Club, D. F. Harrison.

It was suggested that Fred Wood and Julius Martin, chairmen, respectively, of the County and City Central committees, be added to this Executive Committee, but it was at length decided to leave the question of enlarging the committee to its own members.

An adjournment of the general meeting was taken, and the Executive Committee then met to appoint sub-committees. M. G. Williams was chosen as chairman of the Executive Committee. It was moved that Capt. F. G. Cressy be made chairman of the ratification meeting, and the motion prevailed.

There were a number of nominations for grand marshals of the parade among these being C. L. Strange, C. M. Fairbanks, W. S. Redding and Frank Domingues. A vote by ballot was taken, resulting in the election of Domingues to the position.

Electric Light Struggle at Santa Ana—Death of Thomas P. Foster—Prisoners Plead Not Guilty—A Committee's Report.

SANTA ANA, June 10.—(Regular Correspondence.) There is no question here that receiving more attention than the present time than that of the matter of the city owning the electric light plant. About two months ago the Chamber of Commerce circulated two petitions, one favoring and one opposing municipal ownership, and the signatures attached to the former were those of those who had been in the city for some time. This shows plainly the wishes of the people in the matter. About that time the Santa Ana Gas and Electric Company, through its president, Mr. Holmes, announced to the public that its friends could serve it best by doing all they could for municipal ownership. This was after the clause agreeing to purchase the present plant at $400 was injected into the resolution of intention to call an election for the voting of electric-light bonds. This was indeed, a clever piece of work, and it seemed to the public that with the subsequent appeal of the president of the company to his friends, for while, but it was not long until it became apparent that the stockholders of the Gas and Electric Company, after all, were not in favor of municipal ownership, and that they were only to carry the bonds of the stockholders of the Gas and Electric Company, evidently believe they can defeat the measure at the polls, and they are now moving heaven and earth to accomplish what they have set out to do.

SANTA MONICA.

Mysterious Case of Illness Starts Rumors of Poisoning.

SANTA MONICA, June 10.—(Regular Correspondence.) S. P. Carpenter and members of his family had a painful experience Tuesday which started a rumor that they had been poisoned. Mr. Carpenter was at his ranch, which is between two and three miles north-easterly from town. About the middle of the forenoon, Mrs. Carpenter, her daughter, Mrs. Geary and Mrs. Daly and daughter of San Bernardino started to drive to the ranch. The Carpenter family and the family of J. E. Dunham are great friends and a stop was made at the Dunham place, which is between the Carpenter ranch and town. An earthen jar of buttermilk was given to Mrs. Carpenter and was taken to the ranch where Mr. Carpenter, Mrs. Carpenter and the others of the party drank freely of it.

Mr. Carpenter remained at the ranch and the others returned to town and had dinner at the Carpenter home at 1000 Oregon avenue and Fourth street. Soon after dinner, all of them were taken ill, some of them much more violently than the others. The illness rapidly became worse and caused great agony.

Meanwhile, Mr. Carpenter had also been taken ill. He suffered so much pain that at times he had to lie down on the ground. Alone as he was, he saw that he must get to where he could have help or he might go hard with him. With tremendous effort he endeavored to make his way to the electric-light line, which is about one-fourth mile from his place. It was a horrible struggle, but he finally reached his destination and a passing car soon brought him home.

Drs. Place and Polson had been called and the people were all brought out of danger, but not without suffering a serious scare.

Mrs. Carpenter, when seen by a reporter, manifested anxiety lest there might be a shadow of suspicion that it was a case of poisoning. She declared it could not be and she thought it might have been caused by some weed a cow had eaten. A local physician, when asked about it, expressed the opinion that the buttermilk may have been the cause of the illness may have been caused by the people drinking it when they were overheated. Mr. Carpenter had not been well for several days, and as he was as ill or more so than the others, this explanation seemed plausible.

Instructions were received from the District Attorney's office to conduct the examination without a representative from that office, for all the deputies were very busy. On a motion to discharge the examination was postponed to a later date.

SAN DIEGO, June 10.—(Regular Correspondence.) The Hearne-Chronicle libel suit was practically concluded this morning by the announcement that the jury had failed to agree upon a verdict, after being out all night. The jury was discharged. Six had stood out for Hearne and six for the plaintiff. The case will be retried. The closing arguments in the case were made Tuesday by Tom Fitch for the plaintiff and W. J. Hunsaker for the defense. Fitch mouthed a good deal about the shortcomings of reputable journalists who, not long ago, in his speech on the "Free Press," he eulogized highly. Here is one of the specimens of the yellow gold behind the expression of contempt was altogether too glaring to cause any very lasting impression. Evidently, to the mind of the jury, the case was unwound with cheap stump oratory had more weight than did the loud, shallow mouthings of counsel. DISSATISFACTION AMONG ORANGE GROWERS' EXCHANGE MEMBERS.

Evidences that the Spirit of Discontent with the Business Methods of the Exchange Has Reached a Critical Point—Expressions of Opinion.

RIVERSIDE, June 10.—(Regular Correspondence.) For some time there has been evidence of dissatisfaction among the orange-growers in this city who have been shipping through the exchange. The Times correspondent this morning made an effort to get a statement from prominent members of the exchange, but one and all they declined to be interviewed, and their position can only be surmised.

From a man who has grown oranges in Riverside for more than twenty years and who has been a member of the exchange, a statement of the cause of the dissatisfaction was obtained. He said it was generally recognized that the exchange had not been so managed as to return to the growers nearly as much as outside growers had been able to obtain, and while the growers were generally in favor of the exchange, they were not disposed to maintain the organization at such heavy expense. He declared that he was not disposed to work against the exchange, but would ship through it next year if he could afford the financial sacrifice.

From another man it was learned that one of the men who had been at the very front in maintaining the exchange system from its inception and who is a member of the exchange, was pointed to report on amended plans for the transaction of business, has announced to his friends that he will not be a member of the exchange next year, for the reason that he cannot afford the sacrifice, though he believes in the principle.

An orange-grower who has never been in the exchange, when approached said: "No, I am not a member of the exchange, and don't intend to be. No, I will take that back; I want to be a member as long as it is managed as at present."

Being closely pressed for an explanation of his words, he said that during the past three years he had sold his lemons at 12 cents a box, while his neighbors had sold through the exchange and had netted about 75 cents a box, and only got 10 cents a box for his own lemons. He couldn't explain the difference in receipts for practically the same quality of fruit, and was not disposed to enter into the details of the exchange system, but more clearly into its inner workings.

A number of other orange-growers were seen and all of them expressed their dissatisfaction with the exchange, but none were disposed to add further details to those already given.

At the office of the exchange nothing could be learned through direct statements of the exchange system, but information was obtained from a member of the exchange, who was working on local problems or questions affecting the interests of the growers, that the exchange was not so managed as to return to the growers nearly as much as outside growers had been able to obtain, and while the growers were generally in favor of the exchange, they were not disposed to maintain the organization at such heavy expense.

"George T. Anthony on Thursday morning last had a narrow escape from being burned to death. He was in a room on the upper bridge, when about opposite the Sresovich home, his clothes took fire from an unextinguished pipe which he had placed on the table. As it was, the fire was not aware of the burning until Nathan T. Saunders coming to see him, saw the flames and went to Mr. Anthony's rescue which was most fortunate, as nothing could, in five minutes more, have been done. He was badly burned about the back, arms, neck and left hand, but escaped serious injury."

E. Thompson, P. of T.; Belle Lee, O. G., and Selecta Dickenson and Fannie Cobb.

After some discussion it was finally resolved that the church should defer action for one week and that it should throw no new light on the situation and offers no course but submission to the presbytery.

Being asked to summarize briefly the decision of the general assembly, Judge McKinley said that the decision sustained the presbytery upon every point in dispute. Mr. Howard is a suspended minister, but he will not have any formal notice of the assembly's action reaches the clerk of the synod. The recommendations made by the assembly throw no new light on the situation and offers no course but submission to the presbytery.

Three courses are open to Westminster Church. First, submission to presbytery; this was curtly dismissed with bare mention. Second, the church might simply do nothing and give no intimation to the presbytery as to its future course. Then if Mr. Howard should be asked to resign, the church would take action against the church and expel it from the denomination. Third, the church might, while still adhering to Presbyterian doctrine, withdraw from the presbytery and refuse to recognize its authority on the ground that the orders it had made were for the purpose of obtaining temporal advantages and control of the church's property. If the last course should be adopted, the church would be right to hold on to its property. The articles of incorporation do not limit the organization to carrying on a Presbyterian church. Mr. Slauson made the point that the church was organized before there was any presbytery here and therefore was not subject to it.

As some of the more conservative members of the church evidently feared to precipitate action, a committee of nine was appointed by the chairman to consider the recommendations of the general assembly and report at the meeting on the 17th inst. From the composition of this committee there is little doubt that the members will refuse to recommend obedience to the behests of presbytery. Most of them have plainly indicated their opposition to the course. A suggestion that action be deferred until after the meeting of presbytery received no support.

Rev. Mr. Howard was interviewed shortly before the meeting. He said that the church would issue a statement of its position, and that he would continue to act as a Presbyterian minister until notified of the general assembly's action by the clerk of synod. "I am a Presbyterian until presbytery declares me otherwise, and that is all that is to be said of hereof, not of contumacy, recognize the authority of the general assembly, the case is finally decided and there is no appeal. We must obey. I presume I am taking no part in the matter and shall not in any way seek to influence the action of the church."

When asked what he would do if the congregation should withdraw from the Presbyterian church, he replied that he should not decide that case till he had to.

WESTMINSTER MAY WITHDRAW

The Congregation Still Unwilling to Obey the General Assembly.

There is little room for doubt that the Westminster Presbyterian Church will soon sever its denominational bonds. The adjourned annual meeting was held last evening. About two hundred members were present, Judge J. W. McKinley acting as chairman. It was suggested that it might be necessary to make changes in the by-laws of the church and in order to facilitate such changes the members present signed an instrument giving authority to the trustees to repeal and amend by-laws and to adopt such new ones as they deemed advisable.

The clerk then read the full report of the decision of the general assembly upon the appeal of Rev. Burt Estes Howard. The tenor of this decision is already familiar to readers of The Times. Judge McKinley commented with feeling upon the action of the general assembly, made out that a full hearing had not been accorded to Mr. Gordon, who represented the Westminster Church.

After some discussion it was finally resolved that the church should defer action for one week and that it should throw no new light on the situation and offers no course but submission to the presbytery.

Being asked to summarize briefly the decision of the general assembly, Judge McKinley said that the decision sustained the presbytery upon every point in dispute. #### JUDGE SHAW'S DECISION.

Firebaugh Says It Was Merely Forecast—Self-Vindication.

Attorney Firebaugh of San Francisco who will be remembered in this city for his connection with a suit against Blanche M. Burbank for several thousand dollars, has been interviewed at his home by the San Francisco Chronicle. Firebaugh says he originally considered $30,000 would have been a reasonable fee for the executors and himself, but that amount was refused, and "they finally agreed upon $21,000. Of this I received part in cash and a note was given for the balance. It was all put in my name, the understanding being that I was to do as I pleased with it. Of this sum I received part cash, three installments were paid; the February and March installments became due and they sought some excuse and declined to pay it. Then I presented a bill for $750 for my services in the Circuit Court, and in default of payment sued upon it. In their answer Mrs. Burbank's attorney claimed that with the exception of $100, the whole sum was given to me with the intention that it was a gift to Mrs. Bacon and Frank Barker, total of $21,000. The question of my fees. After we had proceeded to trial on those pleadings they amended their answer, setting up that Mrs. Burbank intended that the $21,000 was to be equally divided between myself, Mrs. Bacon and Barker as a gift. At the conclusion of the testimony on that point, I amended my pleadings so as to conform to the evidence, but as their amended answer has not yet been served, I do not know what it sets up. "While the case is still unsettled, Judge Shaw has already forecast his decision; but the testimony on file in Los Angeles certainly contains no such proof as that alleged against me in the dispatch, and I emphatically deny that I have been guilty of bad faith or double dealing or that the proceedings show that any such reflection has been cast upon me."

The amended answer charged fraud and as regards Judge Shaw's opinion, it was no forecast; it was final and will be written up upon the same basis as handed down. It is in all probability a summary of notes at this time. Judge Shaw stated to a Times reporter yesterday, upon being shown Firebaugh's declaration, that the decision has been rendered and not forecast. The proceedings in the court here hardly justify the San Francisco's self-vindication.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Preparations for the Great Patriotic Celebration.

The Fourth of July work is being vigorously pushed. From the success with which the Finance Committee has managed the celebration, it is believed this year's demonstration can be made even more elaborate than that of a year ago. Maj. J. Lee Burton will be marshal of the parade. Maj. W. S. Redding, chairman of the Committee on Parades, has been authorized to arrange for a flag and a star of children dressed in red, white and blue. The children are now being enrolled at the headquarters in the Kaweah block on Third and Broadway. There will be floats representing the landing of Columbus, the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation, peace, prosperity and the coming century. Many members of the G.A.R. and of civic organizations will appear in the parade. There will be plenty of martial music. The women of the Relief Corps will appear in the parade in carriages.

Immediately after the possession is over there will be children's exercises at the First Congregational Church. There will be literary exercises at Hazard's Pavilion both afternoon and evening. Senator White and representative McLachlan have been invited to deliver addresses. Capt. Hutchinson, chairman of the Committee on Decorations, has a large force of men at work preparing the flags and bunting with which the streets will be decorated, several days before the celebration.

David Gates Insane. David Gates, a well-dressed young man about 20 years of age, was removed to the County Jail by Officer Robbins yesterday to await an examination as to his sanity. Gates has been rooming at the Arcade Hotel for the last three weeks. Yesterday he became violent and imagined that he was being pursued by men who wished to kill him. He has been sick for some time, and his insanity is probably due to that. It is thought that with proper care he will recover his mind.

Mrs. Reynolds Gone. Mrs. Nellie Reynolds, wife of Officer Scott Reynolds, who went to Santa Ana some days since under peculiar circumstances, and who was arrested by her husband, left for the East yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock to visit her mother, and it is said she will remain permanently. The complaint on which she was arrested was dismissed yesterday.

Theodore Jones, Spokane; Lewis M. Story, New Orleans; F. Leighton, Oswego, Mich., are at the Nadeau.

A. C. Billicke, proprietor of the Hollenbeck, has gone to the beautiful Yosemite Valley for a ten-days' outing.

C. W. Hodgson of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company is registered at the Hollenbeck from San Francisco.
